Deposed Superintendent Figures in Testimony Brought Out by Investigator Osborne.

ALBANY, Jan. 10 .- The name of C. Gordon Reel, deposed last year as State Superintendent of Highways, was today brought into the Osborne investigation of Highway affairs while the contruction of a road between Chatham Centre and Rider's Mills, Columbia County, was under consideration. Pre-vious witnesses had testified that Con-tractor L. L. Mellus of New York had sactor L. L. Mellus of New York had been able to have the contracet altered he could save approximately $10,000. could save approximately $10,000. Melius denied yesterday that the alter-ation meant a saving to him. Lester J. Bashford, Road Superin-tendent of Columbia County, testified e-day that the specifications of the tion that it would save the county sands of dollars. As it turned out, ified, only $450 of the saving was mend into the county treasury.

Bashford said A. B. Culver, estimate

ork in the Highway Department, had n soliciting his aid in having the stract altered. In this letter, which placed in evidence, Culver declared the change was desired by Mr. Reel.
Geltus had bid on the contract, the ot be fulfilled for the price.

Patrolman Joseph Brown, after send-ing an alarm, entered the burning building with Herbert Solomon of No. 168 East Broadway. By this time, for were bursting from the windows over the fire escapes on the fourth floor.

Brown was told that the watenman of the building was on the fourth floor. He ordered Solombon to remain in the hall and went into the room, which was filled with amoke and blistering hot. He found the unconscious watenman and dragged nim to the door only to find that the latch had caught and would not work.

For fully two minutes Solomon beat on the outside of the door and Brown on the inside. Then the patrolman sank unconscious beside the watenman. Pinally Solomon got the door open and dragged Brown and the watenman into the hallway.

The firemen came and the two men were carried to the street and revived. Brown was painfully burned about the face and hands.

The fire burned out before the frames got it under control.
